

Wang Kai

Dear colleagues,

In the moment while I have to leave, I want to say I have spent an amazing one year in your department and Japan. I think I have met a group of excellent surgeons. You give me a lot of memorable moments which have become a cherish gift for me already. You guys' performance was a wonderful interpretation of what is the "work hard, enjoy hard". I am proud of successfully invited Prof.Eguchi go to my hospital for give my colleagues and medical students an excellent lecture, it's a great beginning of our cooperation. At the end, I very much appreciate that you guys give me the kindness help and take care of me in past one year. I will miss Nagasaki, and I have already miss you guys now.
